The screenshot displays the 'Custom Report' interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Home', 'List', 'Report view', 'Thomas' reports', 'Admin', 'Help', and 'Logged in as Thomas Gibbs'. Below this is a search bar and a 'Thomas' reports' section. The main content area is titled 'Custom Report' and features a 'Personal Report Outline' with sections like '2. SUMMARY & FUTURE PROSPECTS', '2.1 Summary', '2.2 Key Trends', '2.3 Future Prospects', '3.2 Inflation & Interest Rates', '3.5.2 House-Moving Levels', and '3.8 Conclusions'. A '2.1 Summary' section is expanded, showing text about the bathroom products market. Below the text is a chart titled 'Chart 1: UK Bathroom Products Market by Value (Em MSP) 2005-2014'. The chart shows a line graph with data points for each year from 2005 to 2014. The y-axis represents value in Em MSP, ranging from 800 to 950. The x-axis represents years. The chart shows a general upward trend with some fluctuations, peaking around 2009 and then declining.
